20/10/2018

Judges: Steve Bolton A Panel and Lee Cooper (newly appointed A Panel)

Guns: Andy Fisher, Tom Shepherd, Paddy Williams and Karen Pinker.

The trial started in foggy conditions, we proceeded into the woodland which consisted of punishing bramble to which most of the dogs hunted well.

There was a steady supply of game and a lot were running on ahead of us, meaning the dogs had to open up a little more than normal enable to catch up with the birds.

After judges put there books together, they had decided for a two dog run off between Martin

Ashman with Tascroft Puzzler and Jeremy Organ with FTCH Mulraven Medlaress of Cinderash.

The outcome being Martin Ashman winning the run off making his dog up to Field Trial Champion.

Thank you to the stewards and game carriers, your help is always much appreciated.
